3 Charged In Holdups Of 2 Liquor Stores In GC

St. Louis Pair Nabbed In Wood River; Third Man Takes Lie Test

Armed robbery charges have been filed by Granite City police against two St. Louis men in connection with the holdup of Smith's liquor store at 11 a.m. last Friday and against a Mayville man for the holdup of the Na-Bor-Hood liquor store at 1:45 a.m. Saturday.

Named Wednesday for the Smith's liquor holdup were Vernon Clyde Parker, 23, and his brother, Gordon DeWayne Parker, 18, both of St. Louis, who were arrested early Wednesday in Wood River.

Charged Monday afternoon for the Na-Bor-Hood holdup was Roy Kuntak, 35, of Mayville. He was released on $2500 property bond and is awaiting a preliminary hearing on April 1. About $17 was taken from two cash registers at the store.

Police said he appeared at the station voluntarily Monday afternoon, but he was wanted. He submitted to a lie detector test Tuesday afternoon, conducted by a state official here. Results of the test have yet to be received.

The Parkers were arrested early Wednesday by Wood River police in an automobile shortly after they had stolen off of a car lot. The car proved to be defective, and officers in a patrol car nearby saw it driven behind a building.

Upon investigating, they found two pistols in the car, and a check of the license plates showed that the automobile belonged to the Hutton Motor used car lot in Wood River. Patrolman Harold Ingram noted that tattoos on the Parkers' hands matched the description of one of the bandits in a holdup at an Alton drug store.

Clark Named Chief Judge To Succeed Monroe On April 1

Harold R. Clark of Alton has been chosen as the new chief judge of the Third Judicial Circuit, it was announced today. He succeeds retiring Chief Judge James O. Monroe Jr. of Collinsville effective April 1.

The selection was by all the circuit and associate judges in Madison and Bond counties, which compose the circuit and was filed with John Fitzgerald, state court administrator in Springfield.

Joining in Clark's selection were Judges Monroe, Joseph J. Barr, Michael Kinney, Austin R. Schuchman, J. H. Streeter III and Foss Meyer.

Under the plan, Clark will serve until Aug. 1, when he will be succeeded by Judge Barr. The four-month term, shortest in the state, was chosen because of the fact that all three circuit judges work closely together and was adopted so that all three could quickly learn the work of the chief judge, according to Judge Monroe.

Judge Clark called a meeting for today to schedule activities for the remainder of the year. Clark was born and educated at Mt. Sterling, Ill., and received his law degree from the University of Illinois in 1941 when he was admitted to practice.

He was an overseas veteran of 38 months in World War II. Following the war he practiced law in Quincy, Jerseyville, Alton and Wood River. He was a member of the board of education of the Alton-Wood River Bar Association. He is married and the father of two sons and one daughter.

Pet Shepherd Has 14 Puppies

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Price, 4129 Rode Avenue, have 14 German shepherd puppies on their hands—all from one litter that arrived over the weekend for their pet dog "Jenny."

The over-sized litter is the first for one-year-old Jenny and was termed unusual by a veterinarian who assisted in the 14-hour birth period.

The litter includes six females and eight males, all healthy, and the Prices plan to keep only one of the males. They haven't picked which one yet.

"They're all purebreds, but we have no papers on them," Mrs. Price said. Each one is being specially fed and they are all being kept in the house for the present.

Mrs. Price said Jenny is her dog, although she also might be classed as a child's pet. "She likes me the most," Mrs. Price remarked.

Tennis, Golf Teams Practice At GCHS

Tennis and golf practice at Granite City high school picked up steam this week as the opening dates for both squads neared. The tennis team opens play Tuesday afternoon at Wood River and the golfers open a week later at Alton.

Coach Dick Harmon has three alternates for the tennis squad. They are senior captain Wayne Hancock, senior Neal Wolfe and junior Rusty Taburen. The team had a 12-4 record last season. Finishing touches on three new courts at the school are expected by the end of the week, giving the netmen a total of six courts.

Coach Harry Lane has 27 boys competing for spots on the school's first golf team in several years. Workouts have been confined to Wilson Park, but Lane will probably begin practices at the Granite City Army Depot course next week. An addition to the golf schedule brings Belleville here on May 12.

No Decision Yet On Soccer In Schools; Problems Listed

Addition of soccer as a Granite City school district sport was studied Tuesday night by the school board, which decided to wait for a report on the number of junior high school students who would be interested in participating.

A report by Athletic Director Richard Yates cited as problems the locating of a capable, qualified coach; possibly insufficient fall competition; interference with wrestling if conducted in the winter; the possibility of having to limit scheduling to St. Louis schools due to lack of soccer programs at Illinois schools; and a possible lack of soccer officials.

He estimated the cost of establishing a soccer squad of 20 boys at $205 and said $30 would have to be spent at each game to hire two referees.

With leagues sponsored by the YMCA and supervised by Ruben Mendoza, former Olympic soccer star, many Granite City youngsters have been learning the sport, school board members have pointed out.

24 New Teaching Positions GC District For 1964-65

With enrollment expected to reach 13,600 in the fall, compared to 13,098 currently, the Granite City school board voted Tuesday night to create 24 new teaching positions, effective in September 1964.

Enrollment increases were cited in adding five positions at Granite City high school, two at each of the three junior high schools and one at Webster grade school.

Additional rooms were listed at Wilson Grade school, where two instructors are to be added, and an increase of five and four positions at Mitchell elementary school was attributed to higher enrollment and a new five-room addition. Another four new teaching posts were attributed to "other needs" at schools yet to be selected.

Supt. Harold M. Kaiser estimated that, with an average of third-year teachers, the new positions will represent an expenditure of $129,250 in 1964-65. A report prepared for Dr. Kaiser by Administrative Assistant Earl Lee showed that teacher turnover in 1963-64 has amounted to less than 10%, compared to a national average of about 12%.

Maturity And The Schools
"The number leaving is less than in the average school district, and a major cause is maturity," Dr. Kaiser commented. The board having just completed construction bond issue planning related to enrollment growth, Board Member Robert Spengler added that "maturity also is a major cause of our other problems."

The report showed that 91 teachers have been employed to fill vacancies in the current school year, including 24 for new positions. Forty-nine elementary and 42 secondary teachers were hired, three of the former and seven of the latter possessing master degrees.

Teaching experience of those hired ranged from none for 47 to one semester for two teachers, a year for ten instructors, two years for five, three years for nine, four years for six, five years for three, six years for five, ten years for one, 13 years for one, 14 years for one and 16 years for one.

Of the 49 resignations, reasons given included family and home responsibilities, six; husbands transferred six; maternity, five; personal reasons, five; retirement, four; moving into another area, three; graduate study, two; husband returning to school, one; to teach in another field, one; illness, one; other employment, one; going into business, one; other positions, 11; and no stated reason, two.

Honor Retiring Teachers
The school board and Dr. Kaiser Tuesday night honored two retiring teachers, Miss Mary Blackburn, 45 years in the system, and Miss Florence Tansberger, 43 years. The superintendent described the work of both as excellent and impossible to fully replace, adding that Miss Tansberger has personally taught about 1500 Granite City pupils and Miss Blackburn possibly 5000 students.

Miss Tansberger recalled joining the Washington grade school faculty in 1921 and remaining there during the entire time. Originally a sixth grade teacher, she later taught spelling and then geography before serving as a fifth grade instructor for the past eight years.

Miss Blackburn recalled coming to Granite City after completing college, teaching English and history at Central school under the direction of the late Principal Walter Coudage, who allowed her to begin giving speech and dramatics instruction to eight students as an experiment. She has been head of the high school speech department for many years.

She praised the cooperation of all boards, superintendents and principals and said, "If any other teacher can get the job that I have had, it is certainly well worthwhile. I have taken our students to all parts of the country, and they are the finest you will find anywhere. They are eager and enthusiastic, they want to learn, and they are well-mannered and fine looking boys and girls. Rather than you thanking me, from the depth of my heart I say thanks to you."

High Achievement Scores
Submitting an analysis of the Iowa Test of Educational Development, Dr. Kaiser said they "clearly demonstrate outstanding achievement and accomplishments by our students."

It is significant that the students tested represented students from all our schools who are in the high school. Therefore, the results reflect outstanding teaching and work done by the staff.

A percentile score of 60 means that on that item, the student or school ranks better than 60% of the students or schools tested in a random sampling based on 1957 norms and test standardized on 148,000 pupils and 356 schools.

Composite of the eight tests shows that our fall 1962 tenth grade class had a school percentile of 80 and student percentile of 64, and our fall 1963 tenth grade class had a school percentile of 82 and student percentile of 64.

Mathematics Proficiency
Scores included 71 and 71 on understanding basic social concepts, 76 and 79 on natural science background, 60 and 68 on correctness and appropriateness of expression, 87 and 91 on ability to do quantitative thinking, 82 and 79 on ability to interpret written materials in social studies, 77 and 79 on interpreting natural science reading, 65 and 67 on interpreting literary materials, 88 and 76 on general vocabulary and 64 and 54 on use of sources.

Several boards members suggested that an attempt be made to obtain a Master's degree in Illinois achievement comparison in addition to the U. S. sampling.

Resignations were accepted from four teachers—Mrs. William (Dorothy) Jenkins, Belleville, Central senior high mathematics instructor, maternity; Mrs. Julia Kutz, high school English teacher, whose husband is being transferred; Mrs. Steven (Martha) Schlosstein, St. Louis, GCIS art and English teacher, who plans to attend school; and Miss Anna Marie Stas, 2300 Edson avenue, GCIS art and English teacher, who will move to another area. The last three remain until the end of the school term June 5.

Mrs. McCauley holds a bachelor degree from the University of Missouri, St. Louis, and has teaching experience, and Mrs. Briggs holds a bachelor degree from McKendree College and has seven years of experience.

Also named as GCIS social studies teachers beginning next fall were Daniel Thomas Kelleher, St. Louis, 1964 bachelor degree from Southeast Missouri College, and Mrs. Hilda Lee Smith, Springfield, Mo., master degree from the University of Missouri.

Mrs. Harriet Jean Byrd, Sikeston, Mo., 1964 bachelor degree from Southeast Missouri, was employed for an elementary position yet to be assigned.

It was announced during the meeting that School Engineer Marvin Deist underwent surgery Tuesday afternoon and will be away from his duties for several weeks.

Work On School Grounds
Since the next board meeting is not scheduled until April 14, Dr. Kaiser was authorized to hire workers needed to complete preparation of the Prather junior high school, based on a new Granite City high school tennis courts, to finish transfer with the Trade and Industry playground and to carry out other improvements to campus grounds.

It was announced that M. A. Wittverongel, vocational and adult education director, was asked to spend four weeks in Washington, D. C., beginning March 20 with the Trade and Industry Education division of the U. S. Office of Education.

His experience has been deemed as helpful to the government in revising its program, and Dr. Kaiser described it as an

Zone Change Sought To Build Apts. In Shamrock Area

Development of apartment structures and duplex dwellings in a portion of Addition One to Shamrock Gardens by HWR Development Co., Henry Rose, was referred to the City Planning Commission by Granite City council members Monday night.

A petition for the development firm requesting zoning changes was presented to the council by Maurice Dailey, attorney. The firm is asking that the present R-1 single family dwelling zone classification be changed to R-2 for six lots for the apartments and for 15 lots to be zoned R-4 for the duplex dwellings.

Referred to committees and city officials for review was a request presented by the Fire and Water committee for the city to pay medical expenses for recurrence of difficulties for city fireman Leslie Nash, who was injured in 1959 while on an alarm at 15th and State streets where walls of a service station collapsed during a blaze.

It was recommended the results of examinations of the site be viewed before the city council agrees to pay medical expenses. Named to study the case were members of the Finance and Fire and Water committees, the city attorney and the comptroller.

City Jibes At State

State highway department during the meeting at which members had a reply for a letter from the French Village office reporting that check holes along Namekoi road had been repaired and added that the street is due for widening and repaving this year if the city obtains the right-of-way.

Several aldermen responded immediately that they had been over Namekoi road during the weekend and hadn't noticed any repairs.

The state has been critical of the city for not completing appraisals of the 46 tracts needed for widening the roadway north of Madison avenue. Most of the appraisals now are in the hands of the right-of-way agents for the department for review. The project has been on the state's annual improvement listing for three years.

Complaints On Bus Layover

Alderman Gabrielle Beltrone reported on the April 20 starting date of the Bi-State Transit System East Granite bus route into Anchorage homes for the elderly and added that she had sent a letter of complaint to the transit system because of the layover stop on 27th street between Edison avenue and State street.

"I received five complaints before I sent the letter off over the weekend and I received another one today," she said, explaining that the complaints were over the bus stopping there for long periods of time and running noisy motors that give off extensive exhaust fumes.

The bus service into Anchorage on April 20 is to be for a 60-day trial period to determine patronage. The stops will be at 2806 and 2890 Edwards street and at 2803 and 2831 East 25th street within the project. Buses will leave the home at 10 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. Monday through Saturdays with no service on Sundays or holidays.

Liability Insurance

While continuing a study of securing liability insurance to cover the city for sidewalk falls and other types of mishaps, the last policy was canceled early this month—the council plans to obtain insurance for its buildings. It was decided Monday.

night. Bids are to be sought by the controller.

The old policy covered the city for sidewalk mishaps, the building department and was tied in with workmen's compensation.

Alderman Paul Rutledge, chairman of the Finance committee, recommended the immediate action for liability coverage for the city buildings, pointing out the police department pistol range was included and that shooting has been halted because of the lack of insurance. Other buildings to be covered are the street department garage, the city hall and the three fire stations.

Audits of the city's motor fuel tax receipts and expenditures for 1962 and 1963 were received and referred to Comptroller John Doobier.

Proposed—Not Discussed

Letters had been prepared by Alderman William McGee for presentation to Mayor Davis concerning development of the two East Granite cemeteries as memorials to the city.

McGee pointed out the two cemeteries virtually are abandoned and present health and moral hazards as well as a never-ending and costly problem of weed cutting. He is suggesting the mayor and city attorney consider the possibility of consolidating the burial plots and development of a memorial park.

The alderman said he has conferred with a biochemist of the request of the city attorney regarding the safety of city employees handling chemical insecticides and weed killers.

It is suggested the individuals handling the weed killer wear respirators and also should be provided with changes of clothing in the event of contamination. Respirators also should be worn by the operators of the fogging machines, and caution should be exercised not to have tobacco or food come in contact with the chemical. Personal cleanliness also is urged for the operators.

WEED CONTROL BENEFIT

Pre-emergence weed control chemicals eliminated the need for cultivation without affecting corn yields on most fields.

Plow-planted corn fields treated with pre-emergence atrazine yielded essentially the same as check fields that were cultivated once and then broadcast-sprayed with 2,4-D.

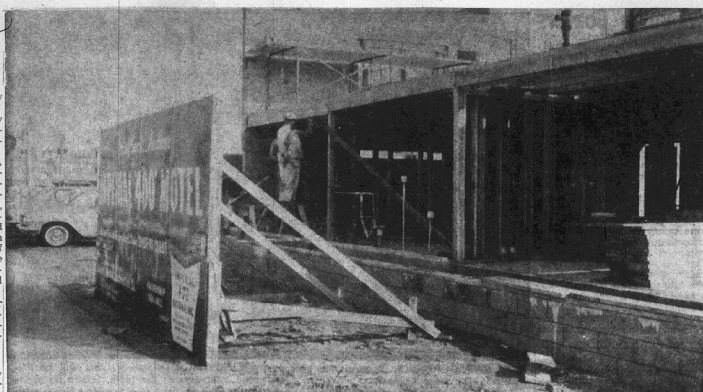

As expected, results with pre-emergence Randox-T were not as effective, since it is not intended to give full-season weed control.

However, Randox-T treated plots that were cultivated once yielded about the same as check strips and plots treated with the atrazine.

Harvesting was a problem in all of the plow-planted plots because the ground was so rough. Bowers said. Time and cost involved in harvesting the rough fields indicated a need for at least one cultivation.

Farmers interested in reducing or eliminating cultivation will probably try these methods on only a small portion of their corn acreage at first, to check results for their own situation.

State Street Accident

ORDER TREES NOW

Orders for trees for reforestation will be accepted by the State Department of Conservation until April 20, but supplies of seven species are already exhausted and several others are in short supply. There are no more Scotch pines available. Order blanks and price lists may be obtained at the farm adviser's office.

SOYBEAN VARIETIES

When choosing a soybean variety, you naturally want to know its yield record. You also want to know a great deal more. When does it mature, for instance? Can it resist disease? How does it stand?

This year you'll find three new varieties available. Harosoy 63, Hawkeye 63, and Clark 63. Each performs exactly like its hamesake—except for one important difference: these varieties can resist the dangerous phytophthora rot. This disease causes a black rot on both roots and stems that kills or severely weakens plants.

In producing these new resistant varieties, plant breeders have provided us with a rare chance to reduce the possibility of disease. Too often a disease causes severe losses before resistant varieties are available. However, you can now plant one of these varieties and insure yourself that disease will not cut your yields.

Being resistant to phytophthora, Clark 63 offers another bonus: The breeders have also added pustule resistance to this variety. Bacterial pustule is a leafspot disease that infects soybeans throughout central and southern Illinois. Pustule resistance, discovered in the variety CNS, was added by a backcross program for one to that outlined for phytophthora.

While supplies of the 63 varieties are large, demand is high. It may therefore pay to get your order in early for the new 63 variety, which is best adapted to your farm.

Here's a word of caution to those who are holding ahead. When buying these new varieties, insist on certified seed. There is no way to distinguish between Harosoy 63 and Harosoy seed. Nor can you distinguish the other varieties from their parent until phytophthora strikes. If you want the advantage of phytophthora rot resistance, be sure that you're getting the variety with the 63 number on the seed is certified. Certified seed is your guarantee that you are getting what you pay for.

23rd-Delmar Accident

A car driven by William V. Dover, 15, of Alton, and one owned by Olen E. Hinchcliff, 47, of 2235 East 23rd street, were involved in an accident at 8 a.m. Wednesday at 23rd street and Delmar avenue. The left front of Dover's car and the left side of the other were damaged. Dover was charged with careless driving.

Bug Those Bass Slowly, Slowly

Dropping an inch-long cork bug into the mouth of an 18-inch-long bass is a feat that requires patience and perseverance.

Bugging for bass, outdoor motor people advise, can be done successfully only one way—slowly! Any other approach leaves the angler frustrated, unsavory and usually fishless.

A bass bug, for the uninitiated, is a lure with a cork or deer hair or plastic body, usually with a bit of feather trailing and always with a hook as an integral part of the unit. It is cast with a fly rod and line.

Most anglers cast their lure near to a bit of cover such as a weed bed, a submerged log or the roots of a tree growing in the water. They let it lie for several seconds, then give it a slight twitch.

If this fails to get a strike, let the lure sit quietly until all the ripples have disappeared, then twitch it gently once more. After several twitches have failed to get a strike, begin retrieving the lure slowly!

After a couple of casts of this nature in one spot, move on—either there are no bass in this cover or they are not interested in the lure you are offering. Find another bass lair for your lure and try again.

Safety Hints For Swimming Boaters

The boater who likes to swim is in an enviable position—he's surrounded by a potential swimming pool.

Since so many boaters enjoy taking a dip while they're out on a cruise, when the fish aren't biting or when they're having a picnic, outboard authorities pass along these safety hints for swimming from the boat:

Drop an anchor and make sure it is holding before going over the side. Note which way the craft drifts and look for eddies around the hull, an indication there is a strong current which could carry swimmers away from the boat.

Turn off your motor's ignition before anyone goes into the water and keep it off until everyone is back aboard. Never swim under the boat or near the propeller.

Never swim alone, even if you're Olympic material. Large groups should use the "buddy system"—pair off and stay close together. In small family groups, one person should remain in the boat as lookout to keep track of everyone in the water.

If you do much swimming or water skiing, a collapsible boarding ladder is invaluable for getting in and out of the water.

Stay close to the boat. Keep a ring buoy attached to a sturdy line handy, in case of emergencies.

Don't swim in areas of heavy boat traffic.

And, of course, observe the same safety rules that apply to swimming anywhere: don't go swimming for at least an hour after eating; don't go in when you're overheated; and never dive into unknown waters. Wade in and explore the proposed swimming area carefully. Make sure there are no snags, logs or rocks in the vicinity before diving.

Geo. Moore Jr. Undergoes Knee Surgery At Columbia

George E. Moore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore sr., 1929 St. Clair avenue, is recovering from knee surgery performed Wednesday at the University Hospital at University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

In an effort to help remedy this deficiency, outboard motor manufacturers pass along these suggestions for "skunked" fishermen who want to forestall unkind comments about their lack of skill.

It is estimated that there are some 600 thousand kinds of insects in the world.

Luck Bad?

Selected Advice For The Fishlorn, Or: How To Lie Effectively When Skunked

A lot of advice is passed out each spring on how to catch fish, but few "experts" offer suggestions on what to do if you don't succeed. This is a serious omission, since coming home with an empty stringer can subject the unlucky angler to sarcasm and derision.

In an effort to help remedy this deficiency, outboard motor manufacturers pass along these suggestions for "skunked" fishermen who want to forestall unkind comments about their lack of skill.

1. Buy your "catch" at the local fish market. This is a common deception, albeit a dangerous one. If you ever encounter anyone pulling this stunt, your angling reputation is compromised for life; thereafter even fish caught legitimately will be suspect.

2. Claim the big one got away. This fabrication is overworked but can be effective if it has two important ingredients: corroboration and testimony from one or more of your fishing companions. The physical evidence of an epic struggle. Verification is easy to provide for—fish only with people who are easily corrupted.

Producing physical evidence is tougher. You could try tearing the bottom out of your landing net and telling everyone the brute was so big and powerful he extricated himself as you were trying to boat him. Breaking your new fishing rod in half is also a convincing, though expensive, means of lending substance to your story.

For best results, delay telling your yarn as long as possible, to give the impression the whole thing is too painful to talk about. When you do tell it, do so with great reluctance and avoid adjectives. Let your companion add the embellishments.

3. Say you caught your limit, then threw them all back. No one will buy this fib, but your friends will admire your nerve for daring to tell such a whopper.

MORE ABOUT

Trailer Law

It is unlawful for wheels to be removed from the trailer unless a permit is obtained "as required for the construction of a new building. Any such alteration shall be construed as converting the trailer into a building and will be subject to the requirements of the building ordinances relating to construction, grading, plumbing, sewer facilities and other regulations applicable to single family dwellings."

Filcoff added that trailers do not meet the city laws on window sizes, floor space and wall studding.

Alderman Partney, chairman of the Zoning committee, said the law on trailers had been studied thoroughly and the members found that trailers do not meet the city's building codes. "You cannot send a letter to the building inspector for a trailer to be put on a lot," he told the council members.

Despite his statement, the council proceeded to refer the matter to the Zoning committee for further study and recommendation.

Motion To Intervene In Title Clarification Suit

The Granite City school district filed a motion to intervene in a title clarification suit filed Feb. 10 by the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank as a trustee.

The circuit court intervening motion was based on the assumption that whatever ruling results from the title suit could be applied to a case which the schools are appealing to the Appellate Court in Mount Vernon.

The ruling being appealed is that Harold W. Kronsbein of Granite City has an interest in the Coolidge junior high school campus and building, due to terms of his grandfather's will and alleged failure to notify him of the 1953 physical evidence of an epic struggle. Verification is easy to provide for—fish only with people who are easily corrupted.

The legal record dealing with the appeal has been completed and was issued yesterday.

The case in which the district seeks to intervene relates to 1.88 acres of property west of Nameoki road and north of Fehling road, including the location of the American National Bank.

Several aldermen said they would not approve locations for house trailers in their ward, including Second Ward Alderman Samuel Whitmer, Steve Basha-rich of the Fifth Ward said he found house trailers to be fine homes and he had no objection.

Alderman William McGee of the Sixth Ward told the large audience, "I guess I started your problem trying to find an honest way to run a town. I'm not against trailers. I lived in one. But even before I was an alderman I was asked about trailers, and it has come up again since it was published a short time ago that several permits were issued."

"I was told the placing of trailers on individual lots was against the law, but that if an alderman so desired a permit would be issued. The issuance of a permit was not automatic."

Call For Clarification

"I want a clarification of this. I know you people don't want to be pushed around, and I know you have been told since last Monday that the law was going to be enforced and you would have to move. If you have a permit, I don't think you should be bothered. The permits were issued in good faith, but to stabilize the situation, we should follow the law now until it is changed," McGee said.

Trailer owners pointed to the advantages of trailer living and many said theirs complied with building codes as to window size and space. Christ Geroff told the council he was denied permits for two trailers on property near the levee by Alderman Walter Norm, who said it was because he (Geroff) did not live in the city. Geroff lives in Madison and said he owns property in Granite City. Norm was not present for the council session.

Others in the audience stressed their individual needs for trailers, and pointed out many trailers were finer than homes that cost the same.

The trailer owners were assured it was not the council's intention to order removal of existing trailers for which permits had been issued.

Next GC School Term Will Open Aug. 31, Close June 4

A school term running from Aug. 31 to June 4 has been planned for 1964-65 in the Granite City school district.

Principals will begin meeting Tuesday, Aug. 23, and Wednesday, Aug. 26, with new teachers attending an orientation program Aug. 27. Opening faculty meetings will take place Friday, Aug. 28, with students reporting Monday, Aug. 31.

The first semester will run through Jan. 22, the first two six-week grade periods ending Oct. 16 and Nov. 25.

Holidays will include Labor Day Sept. 7, American Federation of Teachers and Illinois Education Association meetings Oct. 9, a county institute Oct. 23, Veterans' Day Nov. 11, Thanksgiving Day Nov. 26 (no school also on Nov. 27) and a Christmas-New Year's holiday period starting after classes on Tuesday, Dec. 22, with instruction resuming Monday, Jan. 4. There will be a teachers' record day Jan. 21.

The spring term is scheduled to begin Jan. 23 and end June 4, with grade periods closing March 5 and April 15.

Lincoln, Easter Holidays
Spring holidays for students will be Lincoln's birthday Feb. 22, a county institute April 2, Good Friday April 16 (no school also on Easter Monday, April 19), and teachers' record day June 3.

Maundy Thursday, April 15, will be designated later as a holiday if the school day is not needed to meet state attendance requirements. Closing due to snow and ice have occurred in some years, making extra days in the calendar necessary.

A 180-day schedule has been planned, not counting seven holidays and four institute days.

Compared With Madison
A 177-day year has been scheduled in Madison, with the term beginning Aug. 31 and ending May 28, a week earlier than in Granite City. School will be held there on Dec. 23, and no record days are listed in the calendar.

Exploratory questions by Board Members Daniel Linder and Ronald Dillard have raised the possibility of attempting to end the Granite City term as early as in Madison, in future years.

Supt. Harold M. Kaiser has said he would oppose opening the fall term as early as Aug. 24, due to the summer heat.

Assuming Maundy Thursday as a holiday, which has proved to be the case in recent years, the Granite City calendar is two days longer than that of Madison and runs a five-day week longer, the extra three days representing the two record days and the extra day of Christmas vacation.

Prison Term Of GC Man Reset To Prevent Parole
The prison sentence of Morris C. Hayes, 36, of Granite City, was reset Monday to a term of not less than three years nor more than three years and one day by St. Clair county Circuit Judge Joseph E. Fleming at Belleville.

Hayes was sentenced on March 22, 1963, to three to 30 years in the state penitentiary at Menard after pleading guilty to the statutory rape of a 10-year-old East St. Louis girl on July 19, 1961.

The new sentence will prevent his being released on parole before he serves three years and one day, starting with March 22, 1963.

Venice Lions Hear Talk On Guidance Counseling

Mrs. Glenna Staggs and daughter, Crystal, and Mrs. Gladys Staggs visited Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Prior and son, Jeffrey, of Jennings, Mo.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Heavy Demand Here For Kennedy Coins

Demand has been very heavy for the new John F. Kennedy half-dollars released for circulation this week, a Press-Record survey of local banks showed today.

Although many banks in the St. Louis area are reportedly out of the new coins, all Quad-City banks have a few left, according to officials.

The new Granite City banks—American National, First Granite City National and Granite City Trust and Savings—are limited distribution to two coins per customer. The First National Bank in Madison reported it was "rationing" the coins but had no set limit.

The new coins, honoring the late President, were distributed early this week by the Federal Reserve Bank in St. Louis. But the initial supply is limited. "People come in and they can't understand why we can't give them $40 or $50 worth of the coins," said one banker. "What people don't seem to realize is that they'll become very common. The Treasury is going to mint 64 million this year."

Most folks, he observed, probably just want to tell future generations they got the coins in the first days of issuance.

HOLIDAY VISITORS HERE FROM ST. PAUL

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Spengler, Miss Karen Spengler, and Mrs. Richard Spengler and their infant daughter Sherrie arrived here Wednesday evening to spend the Easter holidays with friends and relatives.

They are former Granite City area now residing in St. Paul, Minn.

RECEIVING FIRST KENNEDY half-dollars distributed here Tuesday was Gabriel Gantcheff, local drug store proprietor. Serving him is Miss Evelyn Presney, teller at the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank. The coins are available at all local banks.

MORE ABOUT

2 Candidates Report

They can be questioned directly. Dillard said board reorganization planning has not reached the point of a formal meeting, but said he hopes the reorganization can be planned prior to the actual meeting.

April 14, just as the board prepares for other business in advance by studying agenda reports.

Both Dillard and Linder said they have talked to Board Member Worthen recently in urging his cooperation in bringing about changes in school policies. Linder also has favored a bigger role for department heads and said yesterday that he hopes the board can spend more of its time on "education" than it has in the past.

Replacement Suggestion

Linder said an American Federation of Teachers member suggested replacement of Dr. Kaiser in a conversation with Linder three weeks ago. Denying that board reorganization plans have reached a definite stage, Linder said he does not concede at this point that there is a situation serious enough to justify firing the superintendent. He said criticism and changes should be "constructive" rather than "destructive" and that if any candidate runs on a platform of firing the superintendent, Linder would oppose him.

Linder said he favors a plan of privately outlining changes desired by the board and then reviewing them after a year. After being reiterated, if they were still not carried out in the second year, he would consider replacing a superintendent after two years, he said.

Crier told the Press-Record that he was contacted by a group of about seven representing the teachers' union.

"As to whether I have been approached to fire the superintendent, I would say 'Yes.' As to whether I would agree without more facts, Linder said he does not. He said his stand may have changed his chances of winning the election.

No Commitments Either Way

Crier commented, "I told them I would be in favor of firing nobody until I sat on the board and could make a decision based on full information. I won't give the teachers a commitment, and I won't give Dr. Kaiser a commitment, either, though he hasn't asked for one."

Moss said he was "contacted by people fronting for the teachers" and was asked to favor replacement of the superintendent if elected to the board. He said he is "for the people as a whole" and would base such a decision on evidence of administrative inefficiency or efficiency, including whether construction is carried out at the lowest possible cost.

Mebel, who is among the construction sharply criticized by administration and board in public talks, said, "I have not been approached yet." He said he would not oppose replacing the superintendent if his observations as a board member indicated such a decision.

Presley said he has the informal endorsement of the teachers' local and also of Alderman Walter Nott, whom he said turned down a financial offer from another candidate so he could help Presley because Presley is a former West Granite resident.

Candidate Lists Questions

Presley reported that many school employees "want to get rid of Mayor Deane" but that he has not been asked to vote to fire Dr. Kaiser. He said he was asked to seek more harmony in the school system and is interested in learning why the district is not getting more applications from state university graduates, why Dr. Kaiser does not delegate more authority to other administrators, why Dr. Kaiser wants to be notified before board members visit schools, why there is not a higher caliber of school bus drivers, and why teachers say their statements are distorted by the time they reach the board.

The candidate said he favors direct board-teacher negotiations, construction by bond issues rather than "patchwork."

Cries 'Lack Of Harmony'

Neumann said he has not been asked to fire Dr. Kaiser. He said he is campaigning on a policy of direct negotiations, a increased monthly or quarterly board-teacher discussions, higher teacher salaries, and opening financial records to teachers to show where funds are allocated.

Presley said that, if elected, he would consider polling teachers to get their views of Dr. Kaiser. He said he felt most would favor keeping the superintendent.

Neumann said he has not been asked to fire Dr. Kaiser. He said he is campaigning on a policy of direct negotiations, a increased support of the athletic program and no increase in taxes.

He said he is concerned over "a lack of harmony between the board and teachers, the board and other employees and the board and parents."

Neumann added that he is not in a position to formulate an opinion of the administration until he is on the board and has access to all information available to the board. He said talk of who would serve as board officers should await the election results.

Neumann added that he is not in a position to formulate an opinion of the administration until he is on the board and has access to all information available to the board. He said talk of who would serve as board officers should await the election results.

Sneed said he has not been asked about his views of the administration but that he thinks "we have one of the finest school systems," that Dr. Kaiser is doing a fine job and that there are potential disadvantages for all concerned in having the board conduct lengthy negotiations.

Sneed added that much abuse has been heaped upon the administration and board in campaign talks by some of the candidates. He said many of the comments have been too sweeping to be based on direct knowledge.

President Fricker stressed his active union affiliation but said all board members should be guided by their best judgment rather than allowing themselves to become "puppets" for any group.

He condemned attacks on the board and administration as unfair and inaccurate and said that while employees' needs must be considered, a small group of employees must not be permitted to "overpower the board."

Sees Crisis In District

Dr. Walton said he has spoken out because a crisis is being created in the school system by the activities of a few teachers.

He emphasized that he is in sympathy with the labor movement but that the situation that is developing needs to be beaten decisively in the April 13 board election.

He entered his criticism on Neumann, Presley and whatever commitments have been given, —TRY A CLASSIFIED AD—

PROPOSED ICE RINK SITE. The Granite City park district commissioners are investigating construction of a $228,000 rink in this area at Wilson Park, just east of the main concession stand and near 29th and State streets. The rink would accommodate 300 skaters and replace the small pond in the park just off Fehling road.

Specialist Gives Data On Unemployment Payments

"If an employee deserves unemployment compensation to see that he gets it," John C. Donnelly, manager of personnel records at Walgreen Drug stores, Chicago, said last night at a dinner meeting sponsored by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce at Sunset Hill Holiday Inn.

Donnelly added, "If an employee is released through no fault of the employer, the employer should protect his getting unemployment compensation to the fullest extent."

"We, at Walgreen's, have won out of every 10 cases we have protested. Of course, we thought we should have won every case," Donnelly stated.

He told the 71 persons present 10 ways to cut their unemployment compensation rate. First of all, he said, "Keep good personnel records. By doing this it's simply to check facts than to depend on memory."

Secondly, "Hold exit interviews and have the employee sign the reason for leaving." Next he said, "Better hiring and indoctrination are essential. Employees cause some of the trouble themselves by hiring someone not qualified for a position."

Other points Donnelly made were: stabilize employment; check figures supplied by the state; the tax man and personnel man should cooperate; retire co-employees whenever possible and watch legislation concerning unemployment compensation.

Dale Arnette, chairman of the committee, introduced Paul L. Lawver, area supervisor, division of unemployment compensation, Belleville, and Duward L. Book, manager, unemployment compensation office, Granite City.

The finale was "Easter Parade" sung by Bill Getz and a chorus of 15 girls. They were Marilyn Gortman, Diane Wilcox, Bernice Koelker, Mary Jane Gray, Diana Clayton, Judy Reideberger, Jackie Kampmann, Mary Donna Scaturro, Grace Hogan, Johnnie, Mary Margaret Caruso, Kathy Ochoa, Mary Jane Caruso, Linda Pears and Kathy Yearman.

Easter Egg Hunts Scheduled Saturday

Two Easter Egg hunts, one sponsored by the Granite City park district, the other by Amvets post 187 are among those to be held Saturday.

Harold Brown, director of parks and recreation, said the hunt, which will begin at 10:30 a.m. at Wilson Park, will be for children from pre-school age through the sixth grade. The pre-school through kindergarten hunt will be conducted at 27th and Benton streets, for first through the third grade youngsters at 28th and State streets and for fourth through the sixth grade children along Fehling road near the baseball diamonds.

Isaac Duke, Brother Of GC Man, Expires

Isaac Duke, 71, of Alton, brother of Levi Duke, Granite City, was dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital early Wednesday.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at an Alton funeral home and at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Creek Springs, Ill. funeral home, with burial in County Line Cemetery there. Mr. Duke was a building contractor.

Floyd Ridgeway, chairman of the Arrowe hunt, said toddlers through 11-year-olds are welcome at their affair which will start at 2 p.m. at the Long Lake fire department grounds.

Both Ridgeway and Brown said candy and prizes will be awarded to the children.

Apparent Wage Agreement On School Cooks

Apparent agreement on cafeteria workers' pay and working conditions was reached Tuesday night when the Granite City school board approved hourly rates of $1.50 and $1.40 in 1963-64 and $1.55 and $1.60 in 1964-65, with employees receiving $1.60 and $1.70 remaining at those levels.

In attempting to make the pay uniform except for supervisors, the board also authorized a change for those to be $1.53. They will get $1.60 hourly for the final week of the next school year (June 1, 1965 effective date).

Cook's negotiators have agreed that 28 higher-pay personnel 17 will have been equalized with others by July 1, 1965, and that the higher pay received by 11 will not apply to their successors.

The settlement, which awaits ratification by cafeteria workers, stemmed from joint negotiations March 20 between Supr. Harold M. Kaiser, Business Manager Victor Anderson, School Board Member Robert Spangler, and the building service, carpenter, chauffeur, laborer and painter union. Board Member Ronald Dillard was an observer.

Proposals For Five Groups

The board rejected a proposal of a 15-cent hourly pay boost this year for custodians, carpenters, painters, laborers and truck drivers, with no additional raise next year. However, it proposed three possible settlements for negotiating purposes: or a 15-cent raise effective April 1, 1964, rather than July 1, 1963.

Infant Dies In Crib Due To Suffocation

Little Walter Edward Hadley, six-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hadley Sr., 1584 Broadway, was dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth's Hospital yesterday at 9:40 a.m. after he was found under a blanket in his crib.

An inquest conducted yesterday evening by Deputy Coroner Dewey Lahey inquired into the infant's death. The infant was found in the folds of the blanket by his mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ann Hadley.

They testified that they had heard the baby crying and were preparing a bottle before discovering the infant unconscious in the crib. They tried artificial respiration as the Venice fire department and inquirer were being called. Efforts to revive the youngster failed.

The inquest report stated that death was due to suffocation.

The baby was born in East St. Louis, and in addition to his parents and paternal grandmother, is survived by a brother, Dale Hadley Jr.; maternal grandparents, Cletus Cleaves, Venice, and Mrs. Pearl Weller, Granite City, and great-grandparents, Mrs. Ethel Christopher, Granite City, Mrs. and Mrs. George Hadley, Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Blair, Alton.

Funeral services were conducted today. Further information is given in today's obituary column.

Judgment Against City In Injury Case

The city of Granite City was ordered to pay $31,238.54 to John F. Duggan Monday in Alton by Circuit Judge Harold E. Clark for personal injuries suffered in a fall on a public sidewalk curbing in the vicinity of 20th street and Edison avenue.

Duggan had brought a $75,000 suit against the city after being injured Sept. 26, 1961. Trial was held March 17.

Judge Clark ruled Duggan, a former Alton resident now living in Granite City, was exercising due care for his own safety and was free from negligence.

He said Granite City was negligent in failing to maintain the sidewalk and curb in a reasonably safe condition and that the negligence was the cause of the injury.

John T. Rouch, Alton city attorney, represented Duggan. Granite City was represented by Robert F. Godfrey, East St. Louis city attorney, who said he was hired as a private attorney by the city's insurance company, Midland National Insurance Co.

Admit Holdup Series

The younger Parker, under questioning by Wood River police, admitted a series of robberies during a 2 1/2-week period, including the one at Smilin' Joe's, the Alton pharmacy and beauty business establishments in St. Louis and St. Louis county.

It was learned that the older Parker, who would make no statement, had been released from the Missouri penitentiary last Feb. 19. He was sentenced to five years in prison in the fall of 1963 after pleading guilty to robbing three women in three successive days. Gaylon Parker, the younger of the two, had no record.

Granite City police, in addition to authorities from Alton, St. Louis and St. Louis county, questioned the pair.

Alton police took them into custody on a charge of armed robbery after they waived preliminary hearing in Wood River. Bonds were set at $500 each on the auto theft charge in Wood River and $10,000 each in Alton. They were due for processing today in Granite City. The amount taken from Smilin' Joe's is undetermined, according to Chief of Detectives George Telson.

Southwestern Plan Group Offers Aid To Area Agencies

Assistance by the Southwestern Illinois Regional Planning Commission was offered to area municipalities by Theodore Mikesell, its new executive secretary, at a dinner meeting of the Southwestern Illinois Conference of Mayors Wednesday night at the Bel-Air Hotel in Belleville.

He reviewed state legislation establishing the commission and noted that the state has provided $37,500 in operating expenses for two years.

The commission is to meet at 7 p.m. today at Augustine's restaurant, Belleville, to act on a proposed 15-month $84,000 budget and to consider a proposal to increase the commission's staff.

The budget includes a $36,000 federal grant, $18,000 in local services to be provided by Southern Illinois university and the state appropriation.

Mikesell told the mayors that their conference was instrumental in the creation of the commission and that it is the commission's duty to support and improve the services of the municipalities. In the past two months the commission has been conducting a number of communities for assistance, he said.

Land Use Study

Land characteristics and a land use study is one of its initial programs, he said in stressing development of such a program. A great deal of information already is available, he said, and the commission will collect, analyze and report on all studies, bringing them under one cover and making them available to areas in need.

This could be useful to governmental bodies, real estate agencies, industries and other groups, Mikesell said.

During the meeting Harry W. U. S. Treasury department deputy director now headquartered at Benton, honored three business establishments for the efforts in support of the U. S. savings bond program. Included was the Macintosh Herald, published by Arthur D. Jenkins and firms in Belleville and East St. Louis.

Single Proposals On Major Items

GC Studying Street Work Material Bids

Only one bid—from Midwest Black Top Roads, East St. Louis—was received for several of the major items of materials needed by the city for its annual summer improvement program for dirt streets, it was announced during Monday night's Granite City council session.

Commenting on the lone bid proposals, Alderman William McGee asked if "things are tied up that much that we can get only one bid?" He suggested the council study the possibility of using road tar.

His question went unanswered as the council authorized the street and alley committee to study the proposals for road oil, liquid asphalt, gravel, patching material and salt and to submit recommendations to the state highway department for final approval.

The bids proposals by Midwest were for 5500 gallons of road oil applied, 14 1/2 cents a gallon—$797; 77,150 gallons of liquid asphalt, delivered, 17 1/2 cents a gallon—$13,508; 640 gallons of MCL liquid asphalt, 37 1/2 cents a gallon—$112; and 3420 tons of coal coke aggregate, $5.33 a ton—$17,728. Total amount of the four bids was $31,946.

Three bids were received for 255 tons of grade 7 crushed stone or grade 7 gravel, loaded on trucks at quarry or plant Columbia Quarry, St. Louis, and East St. Louis Stone Co., each bid $1.80 a ton for total amounts of $459, while St. Louis Slag bid

$1.85 a ton for a total of $457. The slag firm is located in Granite City, while Columbia Quarry is at Dupu, and East St. Louis Slag's plant is at Falling Springs. The committee is to study hauling costs.

Only one bid was received for 425 tons of bituminous patching material to be loaded on trucks at the plant. It was submitted by MacLair Asphalt Co., East St. Louis, $5.50 a ton for a total of $2,362.

Illness Forces Mayor To Leave City Hall

Mayor Davis, who has been ill with the flu for nearly two weeks, was unable to preside at Monday night's meeting of the city council due to the illness.

He was in the police department squad room talking to Alderman J. D. Ruffield and David J. Johnston & Associates, engineers, when he suffered several coughing spells. The mayor, who missed the March 16 session because of the illness, commented that he still hoped to preside, but when the coughing persisted, he decided to go home.

The council session started 10 minutes late as the members thought the mayor would return, but then Alderman Paul Rutledge was elected to preside. The first nomination for presiding officer was given Alderman Charles W. Moerlein, a former mayor, but Moerlein pointed out he would have to leave for work at 10 p.m. and that he would decline in favor of Rutledge.

The council meeting did go beyond 10 p.m., lasting until 10:15. Moerlein and Alderman William Dallas left at 10:11 to go to work. Moerlein is a railroad worker and Dallas is employed at Granite City Steel Co.

Also absent Monday were Alderman Walter Norn and Edmund Bartosiak.

The work by the engineer, it was explained, was done before Johnston resigned as motor fuel tax engineer for the city.

you happy

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be. So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17½ feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size alone might make it a luxury car, even if nothing else did. And everything else does, but the price. Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, a 15¼-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space—and three kinds of engines (4, 6 or extra-cost V8) to choose from, besides.
This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and

Then, too, there's the sporty 16-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it—except for things like bigger rear engines for '64. And finally, Corvette—still 14¼ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.
The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the size and price and kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

'The Miser' Chosen As Senior Play At GCHS April 10-11

The senior class of Granite City high school will present Moliere's play "The Miser" at 8 p.m. April 10 and 11 under the direction of Miss Mary Blackburn in the school auditorium. Mike McCarthy will play the role of Harpagon, the miser, and other principal parts went to Kenny Ferro, Becky Shaw, Eric Robertson, Richard McKinney, John Keishan, Pam McCollum, Wayne Hancock, Louise Beecher, Jim Cant, Barry Lewis and Kenny Jones. About 50 persons tried out for parts, with most to be included in the cast. "The Miser" is one of the most famous comedies in world literature. It is a story of a miser who loves money more than his family, reputation or the young girl whom he seeks to marry in rivalry with his own son. He has cheated his children of their inheritance and keeps them in a state of extreme poverty. Eventually the miser persuades the young man to steal his father's money, hide it and force him to marry according to their hearts' desires. Before this can be accomplished, an endless variety of comic incidents occur, each funnier than the last. Reserve seat tickets may be purchased from seniors for 75 cents.

The visit was arranged by their instructor, Grover J. Norwood, who said the students were observing the hospital operation in connection with their studies in psychology.

They were greeted by Dr. Abraham Simon, superintendent, who described in general the treatment program and outlined future plans for treatment of the mentally ill.

Later the visitors were divided into smaller groups to tour wards and laboratories. They then held a discussion with Dr. Endre Komlos, assistant superintendent.

Unusual Summer Jobs Sought By SIU Students

A Southern Illinois University student would like to work on a Mississippi River barge this summer. Another student would like to work as a lumberjack. These are a few of the unusual jobs these students can be accommodated, according to two men in the barge and lumber industries who are now investigating the possibilities of such employment.

No miracle workers, Harold Reents and Bruno Bierman, supervisors of summer employment in the work office, have been successful in obtaining such "different" jobs as these because they are not afraid to ask. "A person does his best if he likes his job," Reents said. "When a student comes in hoping to get summer employment on a river barge, or another job as unique, we assume he has given some thought to his request and we give it consideration. We will make an inquiry among employers in the student's line of interest, and often find an employer who is just that no one's thought to ask him before. We were able to place a student at an Alton hotel in this manner."

Camps, National Parks
In addition, the largest employers of student workers are the camps, resorts, concessioners and the underpaid, overworked and underpaid servants to steal his father's money, hide it and force him to marry according to their hearts' desires. Before this can be accomplished, an endless variety of comic incidents occur, each funnier than the last. Reserve seat tickets may be purchased from seniors for 75 cents.

Donald Hoelscher Aboard Ship Near Taiwan

Donald Hoelscher, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hoelscher of 112 Central avenue, is participating aboard the amphibious command ship USS Edwads in a coordinated U.S.-Nationalist Chinese amphibious exercise called "Operation Backpack" being conducted off the coast of Taiwan.

"Backpack" is an exercise to test the amphibious capabilities and readiness of the forces of the Seventh Fleet and the Nationalist Chinese Navy. The exercise, with over 40,000 men and 140 units participating, will culminate in an amphibious assault on beaches of southern Taiwan, and will demonstrate the effectiveness of the United States Seventh Fleet to rapidly move a significant combat force to a troubled area in order to assist an ally.

This year is a special one for summer employment because of the New York World's Fair. Hundreds of exhibitors, service organizations are seeking persons with particular backgrounds.

How well do SIU students handle the jobs they take? Bierman said none of the various employers has registered a complaint. About 10% of the employers send unsolicited performance evaluations, and two, a paper mill and the U.S. Forest Service, provide regular critiques of each student they employ.

Rev. Bryan Speaker At Joint Club Meeting

Rev. William Bryan, pastor of the Good Shepherd Evangelical United Brethren Church, told a joint meeting of the Granite City Kiwanis and Twilight Optimist clubs held Monday night at the Rose Bowl restaurant, "We should recognize prejudice and do something about it."

Bryan said, "A good way to do this is to radiate brotherhood, starting at home first. 'What makes it difficult,' he added, 'Brotherhood isn't understood at home.'"

Harry Marshall, president of Granite City Kiwanis, presided at the "green candle of hope" meeting attended by 30 persons. The affair is given annually by the Kiwanis club in observance of the hope club shares with the people behind the Iron curtain for their freedom.

Turner is equipped with the latest radar equipment used in the detection of enemy aircraft and is capable of controlling the intercept of enemy aircraft by friendly aircraft.

A Saturday drive proves a good time is inevitable for prowling along country byroads. The recent day was spent driving with a youthful friend, mostly over unfrequented country byroads to the site of vanished Progress, a once hopeful village east and south from Cobden in Union county. There was no hurry.

Frequent stops were made along the way whenever interest or curiosity prompted. This younger friend, like the writer, was interested in about everything, particularly in abandoned buildings, deserted farmsteads and little old burying grounds. He also kept a sharp lookout for Indian camp sites, unusual rock formations, specimen trees, birds and even caves. There certainly was no lack of interest nor any priorities. Whatever came to hand came first.

Duplicate Anywhere
The grave, the half-stemmed kind and best for being so, can be duplicated a hundred times in southern Illinois. This typical one began at Carbondale, but there is no best place for starting. Perhaps the very best place to begin is that one where the would-be explorer happens to be. On these trips a camera can well be taken along. An over-size bulb of curiosity is a must. The first two stops were made at burial plots on the east side of Highway 51. Each was marked by half dozen or so shaped and lettered stones and several shapeless ones of crumbling sandstone. Soon came South Pass, that is, it was South pass until 1856 when English Sir Richard Cobden came to visit, vacation, hunt and join the village his name. We discussed the present interesting little roadside museum and the town's annual peach festival. The fact was noted Cobden once was the greatest shipping point

Journalism Hall Of Fame To Open At SIU

A Hall of Fame will be inaugurated during Journalism Week April 12-14 at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, when a group of newspaper editors will be honored for long and distinguished service in journalism in southern Illinois.

Howard R. Long, chairman of the department of Journalism, said that starting this year the department will present the EM Award (Master Editors) at the spring meeting of the Southern Illinois Editorial Association on the Carbondale campus. Master Editors, who will receive a badge and citation, will enter the Hall of Fame.

This practice will be continued each spring the editors meet. Names of editors who will be honored in April have not been revealed.

Journalism Week will begin with the Pan-American Festival April 12-14, at which experts will give background information on Latin America to educators and writers. Tuesday evening (April 14) at a Pan-American Awards dinner, the SIU Latin American Institute, will present two medals, one to an outstanding Latin American journalist or news medium, the other to a news medium of the United States, for service in Journalism contributing to Pan-American understanding of the world. The institute will continue the medal presentations at ensuing annual festivals.

Thursday afternoon Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism fraternity, will conduct a workshop devoted to magazine writing and editing, then hold a reception during the afternoon honoring Don Hesse of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, whose traveling display of cartoons will be shown for the first time. Hesse will be present at the exhibit to be in the University Center.

Wednesday, Advertising Day, and faculty members on the advertising field will tell how U. S. companies advertise in American and Alpha Delta Sigma, professional advertising fraternity, will present a program that evening.

News Day is Thursday, with the annual Lovejoy Lecture scheduled for both morning and afternoon before student convocations. Last year's speaker was Richard Amberg, publisher of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The annual year's speaker has not been announced. Sigma Delta Chi, Journalism fraternity, will hold a reception for alumni and visiting news men during the day.

A Journalism dinner with the Southern Illinois Editorial Association will be held Thursday night, at which time the EM Awards will be given. Friday will be SIEA Day. Activities will start with a President's Breakfast, at which SIU President Delyte W. Morris will be host. Saturday will be High School Journalism Day with between 400 and 500 high school students and faculty members on the campus for a program to be presented by the St. Louis professional chapter of Sigma Delta Chi.

Prior to the assault, aircraft of the Seventh Fleet will soften beach defenses. In addition, support ships will conduct anti-submarine warfare exercises and the area surrounding the beachhead will be cleared of any obstructions and mines.

Grover Lance In Exercise Operation Springboard

A third was the combined country store and post office. The frame of lettered mail boxes still sits in the corner.

The church that stood beside the burying ground has been moved a half mile across the fields and now is a barn. Names on the remaining gravestones are of those who first came to settle there. Their descendants still live in the region.

Deep wells, drilled leisurely round the countryside can find numerous other sites much like Progress.

HOME NOTES

By MRS. ELAINE F. WENDLER, Madison County Home Adviser, Home Economics Extension, University of Illinois

WE GET LETTERS... some of the letters that reach our office, we feel are questions you frequently ask or wonder about. Can I use aluminum foil in the oven as an aid to cleaning? Care must be taken when using aluminum foil in the oven or oven damage may result. A sheet of foil may be placed on the shelf below the one used for baking to catch spills from pies and casseroles that run over. Foil should be about one inch larger than the dish holding the food. Never cover an entire shelf because this will cause an uneven heat circulation. Be sure the foil does not touch the electric units.

Safe Freezing
How much food can I safely freeze at one time in the freezer compartment of my combination refrigerator-freezer? Approximately three pounds of food per cubic foot of freezer capacity may be frozen at one time. For example if your freezer has a capacity of 6 cubic feet it can safely freeze approximately 18 pounds of food at one time. When larger amounts of food than that recommended above must be frozen, it is suggested that the food be divided into the proper proportions, and part of it held in the refrigerator until the other portion is frozen. Place packages flat against refrigerated surfaces of freezing area. After packages are frozen solid, they may be arranged and stacked. Put Eggs in Your Basket Now... Although the youngsters will have to wait until Easter to fill their baskets with eggs, homemakers can take advantage of the plentiful supply now on the market and fill their shopping baskets with all they want. Eggs are an excellent bargain in protein. And they make up into a host of appetizing meatless dishes—so suitable for Easter. But eggs are important to the homemaker on a budget is the fact that eggs are relatively inexpensive. In fact, while retail prices of most other foods have gone up since 1956, egg prices have actually dropped.

Variety Of Meat Dishes
Meat on Your Menu... Tired of serving the same old meats week after week? Then get out of that rut. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, homemakers can serve a different kind or cut of meat every day for almost three months without repeating. At that's the number USDA's Economic Research Service found in a single large supermarket in a typical community. And when they went to all the stores in the area, they discovered an even greater variety—some 135 different kinds and cuts.

So, for the next three months, try to serve your family a variety of meats. They'll find your meals more tempting.

Overweight Girls... Don't envy the teenage girl who runs with the drug store crowd. Unless she exercises a lot, she's going to end up overweight. A person can eat only so much and when snacks are given top priority, there's little room for the more nutritious foods needed by growing teenagers. A girl's date can eat 3100 to 3600 calories a day. In fact, his body requires about 2400 to 2600. After that, anything she eats may be "food for fat."

By-roads Driving is Fun

for tomatoes in America. The fields of jonquils that color its hillsides in springtime, were recalled. Vows were made to turn back to the Bell Place, east of town, and enjoy one of Union County's great views. This is the place where Harold Wright's parents honeymooned.

Continuing east it was not long until vascated farmsteads and rocky ledges began to appear alongside the roadway. A pair was that of a rock formation that looked inviting, there to find in the rock ledge beneath a thin overlay of leaves and soil a much used Indian mortar ten inches in diameter and about as deep. These "work bricks" enough to dig in the deposits beneath the protruding rock ledge surely would be rewarded by finding additional Indian signs.

Decaying Dwellings
One feature common to most of the farmsteads at most of the places where the substantial foundations of shaped stones. In some of these, where the building above still stands, one finds stone fruit jars, "petrified potatoes," and other bits of debris that clearly tell the use to which these cellars were put when the owners gave up the struggle and moved away years ago. Some decaying dwellings with massive door steps of hand shaped sandstone and with stained glass transoms above their front doors still sink at gracious luxury.

Deep wells walled with field and brook stone and covered by large stone slabs, with accurately rounded openings for draw bucket or pump, show that those settling there did not plan to leave soon. Lilacs, peonies, iris, yuccas, lilies and other plantings that survive in old boardways show there were even then many potential members for garden clubs. One can guess that an woman visited in the neighborhood there were many expressions of admiration and some exchanging of flower seeds, plants and cuttings.

Deeply sunken trails with large trees now growing on the bottoms of them, show where old roadways once were. These old trails paying slight heed to land lines, wandered through the woodland in the most convenient way.

Progress Is Found
After several pauses along the way we found Progress, but it wasn't there. Only a few rotting ruins mark the site. Chief of these is the village doctor's home, an 18 by 20 foot, one-story, beveled log house. The floor and ceiling joists of logs and split roof rafters and lathe break its age. Its pointed window frames and a few remaining eight by ten panes of glass, with the purplish glow that only time gives, tell us that the house is old. A quaint corner stairway leads to the loft. According to tradition this was an old house' before the Civil War.

Another tumble-down ruin must have been a blacksmith shop. A third was the combined country store and post office. The frame of lettered mail boxes still sits in the corner.

The church that stood beside the burying ground has been moved a half mile across the fields and now is a barn. Names on the remaining gravestones are of those who first came to settle there. Their descendants still live in the region.

Deep wells, drilled leisurely round the countryside can find numerous other sites much like Progress.

Lahr Gets No Reply On Debate Challenge

Guy Lahr, Granite City school teacher seeking a seat in the Illinois General Assembly, has received no reply to his challenge to debate with Democratic State Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris of Granite City and Leland Kennedy of Alton.

Lahr, in a recent letter to the county, charged that voters of the county have lost their right to vote directly for a state representative candidate of their choice.

"I feel that failure on the part of our legislators to reappear in our state has placed our state government in great peril," Lahr said.

"I also feel that you as legislators apparently felt that your personal political positions were more important to you than the voters who voted for you. I hereby submit this as a challenge to debate the issue in public, so that the people who wish to cast an intelligent vote might know the truth."

Miss Linda Sue Toburen And Richard Williams Wed

White asters and chrysanthemums banded the altar of the First United Presbyterian Church last evening for the wedding of Miss Linda Sue Toburen and Richard Williams. The bride's father, Mr. Robert L. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Mrs. David's daughter, Cyn-Lewis Toburen, 1553 Johnson street, and son, John, of Wichita, road, and Richard Lloyd Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hatch and daughter, Deborah, of Walter Williams of Flora, Ill. Quincey, Mrs. E. E. McCown of Urbana, Mr. and Mrs. French Fraker of Champaign; Miss Lena Smith of Kingsdown, Kan.; Mr. Carl Loring of Kingsdown, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Osterberg of Salina, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boehr of Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Greco of Evansville, Ind.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk organza gown over taffeta, designed with a full skirt that terminated in a cathedral train. The front and back of the skirt and continuing along the train were appliqued with Brussels lace, purchased by the bride's grandmother over 50 years ago in Brussels for her own wedding gown. Also of Brussels lace was a short jacket buttoned down the back with tiny self-covered buttons. A circle of petals fashioned of the same material as the gown held the bride's shoulder length veil of illusion. The bridal bouquet was a half crescent composed of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Sue Ellen Weris was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Dagg, cousin of the bride, and Miss Sharon Lee Williams, sister of the groom. Their floor-length gowns were of pale blue silk taffeta styled with fitted bodices and bell skirts, which had an inserted pleated panel in the back topped with a butterfly bow. Completing the costumes were circlets of aqua petals matching the gowns and matching veils. They carried bouquets of purple asters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Toburen selected a sheath dress of bluish pink pure silk, while the groom's mother appeared in champagne chenille lace and silk organza. Both wore matching accessories and purple asier corsages.

Mr. Williams had Ronald Harris as his best man. Groomsman were George Bradford Toburen, brother of the bride, and Terry Greco, cousin of the groom. Ushers were David and Daniel Hrysko.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the newlyweds will reside at 519 East Melbourne avenue, Peoria, Ill.

The bride was graduated from Granite City high school and attended Illinois State Normal University in Normal, and Northwestern Illinois University, Alton. Mr. Williams also was graduated from Granite City high school and will be gradu-

-have your wiring checked

SEE YOUR ELECTRIC CONTRACTOR. Maybe what you need is modern wiring that supplies adequate power. And maybe other "problem appliances" are really all right. It can be your electric wiring that's at fault.

If electric emergencies like this are too frequent, ask your electric contractor to check the wiring system. Often only a simple change such as an additional circuit is required. If you want to make sure you're doing the right thing, call Illinois Power. Ask our Wiring Representative to double-check at no charge.

Our recommendations don't cost you a penny. And they can lead to practical wiring improvements that upgrade both your joy of living and the worth of your home.

If a major job in re-wiring is required, your bank or savings and loan will be glad to finance it on easy monthly terms.

Dear Herb:

I'm sitting up here in Alaska, enjoying the January 9 issue of the Press-Record which arrived on Jan. 23. Your ad caught my eye. I notice you are selling suits now. Would you be interested in selling one in Alaska? I'm in a gray-green mood this year and still wear 39L or 40R with 32/33 trousers. I've gained a little weight around the middle but keep it cinched-in pretty well. The suit I'm interested in would be around $50 and you know what suits me better than I do. So, if you have something I'd like, send me one and I'll send you a check by return mail.

How are things in Granite City? From reading the Press-Record I'd think there was blood and gore all over the streets from all the auto deaths and injuries. But then I suppose things like that go with civilization. I'm rather happy to be up here in the "bush" and out of the rat-race.

Let me hear from you and if all goes well I should be seeing you in June.

Sincerely,
F. S.

Arrest Here On Failure To Buy Pinball License

Taking action against "the only one in Madison county lacking a pinball license," Louis Bowman, chief investigator of Sheriff Barney Fraundorf, arrested Raymond Gottschall, operator of Ray's Four-Corner restaurant, Rural Route One, on his second visit to the place Monday.

Bowman told the Press-Record he issued a warning March 20 and another Monday before returning with a warrant charging failure to register a pinball machine with the county clerk. The county collects a $35 yearly license fee.

Gottschall was quoted as saying he believed the license had been bought by the owner of the machine, Melvin Pashea.

The restaurant operator pleaded innocent Monday afternoon before Edwardsville Magistrate William Truband and was released to appear for a hearing at 9 a.m. April 7.

Natural Gas Discussion At Eagle Park Saturday

A discussion of natural gas service will be held at a meeting of the Eagle Park Improvement Association at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Church of God in Christ, Eagle Park. It was announced by Cleveland Johnson, president of the association.

Johnson said he hoped residents of the community would start getting the natural gas service this summer. He added surveys have to be made first before a definite time could be set for the installation of the natural gas.

In other items to be taken up at the meeting, Johnson said he will urge residents, who haven't done so, to pay their water deposits. He stated that to get city water each family must pay $103 for installation and $15 connection fee to the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co.

HIGHWAY JOBS OPEN
Employment in the Illinois Division of Highways will be available to 200 male high school graduates who complete a special 11-week training course this summer at the University of Illinois.

High school graduates between the ages of 17 and 25 who have completed courses in algebra and plane geometry and have an interest and aptitude for engineering work are urged to apply. Application blanks are available at all high schools in Illinois and at state and district offices of the Division of Highways.

State government should help private business in realizing its fullest potential, Gov. Kerner said in a recent speech at the annual luncheon of the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry. The governor listed three programs of his administration which have been designed to do this. They are: 1—expanding foreign trade and helping existing industry to expand; 2—expanding foreign trade; and 3—promoting of tourism on a statewide basis.

The Illinois Commerce Commission intends to review the effect of the proposed federal income tax reduction on operations of utilities under its jurisdiction, Chairman James W. Karber announced. "In any case where the earnings indicate an excessive rate of return the commission will request that the utility reduce its rates," he said.

GOP Factions End Dispute On $2500 In Campaign Funds

Two factions of the Republican party in Madison county supporting different gubernatorial candidates for nomination have reached an agreement in a dispute over about $2500 in funds originally earmarked for Secretary of State Charles Carpenter.

The settlement was announced Tuesday and a temporary injunction, granted by Chief Circuit Judge James O. Monroe Jr. to backers of Charles H. Percy was cancelled.

Terms of the settlement were not disclosed. John Mellott, leader of the Percy faction, said both sides agreed to keep disposition of the funds confidential and that the settlement is in the best interest of the Republican party and was made to avoid any personality problems involved.

However, Gene Sternberg, leader of the Percy forces in Granite City, said that 50% of the money will be used by the William J. Scott forces in his primary campaign and the other 50% will be saved for use by GOP candidates in the general election.

The agreement was reached by Hillary Hallett, attorney for the Percy group, and Ronald Motz, attorney for the faction supporting William J. Scott for the nomination.
